DISCOVER

1. Use plant fibers to make a piece of cordage. Tie a knot in the end to make a bracelet.
2. Discover the type of instruments American Indians used to make music. What are the items made from?
3. Find the half hour glass in the steering room on the Elizabeth II. How did they use this object to keep time?
4. Where did they cook on the ship? Can you find out what type of food they ate on board?
5. Identify the use of a square knot and a bowline. Where on the ship did you find these knots?
6. Explore the two tents. How are they different? Can you tell the difference between the types of people that live in each tent?

CONNECT

1. What three major crops did American Indians grow? What do they call these three crops?
2. Try and learn the sounds made by local birds and animals in the watch house. Can your troop remember three different bird calls?

3. Visit the blacksmith shop. What type of tools did blacksmith create? Watch the blacksmith make a wrought nail. What makes these nails so special and work so well?
4. Find out how the crew would raise the anchor, and lift heavy cargo. What type of simple machine is this? How did the crew work as a team?
5. Explore and try the different tools in the Settlement Site. Are any of these tools still used today?
6. Learn Algonquian words in the Leader's House. When you visit the ship and settlement see if you can learn some early modern English phrases.
7. Try on the English and American Indian clothes in the museum. Do you think clothing would have been a main difference between these cultures? Why?

TAKE ACTION

1. Help others learn how to weave basket patterns with construction paper or basket weaving materials
2. Learn to tie a decorative knot and come to the ship to teach others how to tie it and take it home
3. Create a booklet describing Roanoke Island Festival Park and hand it out to those in your community to encourage them to visit.
4. Plant your own Three Sister's Garden and donate the crop to the local food bank.
5. Participate in an Elizabeth II Crew weekend (Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors only).
